以下は幼馴染の友達にあてたメッセージである。和訳しなさい。

Dear my friend,

I haven't written to you so long. How have you been?

As I was tired after work, I got home earlier today. Then I happened to hear that familiar melody on the radio.

Every time I hear that melody, it reminds me of the elementary school we went to.

We used to play in the school yard very late, while we were at school. By the time the sun set, we had to leave school.

I hadn't walked back home by myself until I became a first grader.

I realized I couldn't ask for anyone's help unless it was urgent.

However, once I started walking home, I came to feel confident, for which reason I didn't know.

Since we have long been good friends, you might guess how I felt.

Even if you don't remember our good old days, I don't mind.

As long as you keep in touch with me, I won't complain.

Though I know you're busy, please remember your message will never fail to encourage me.

With love,

Your friend
