

1. 動名詞に注意して、和訳しなさい。

< at a café >

A: What's your favorite pastime?

B: My favorite pastime is reading comics. I usually enjoy reading them after doing my homework.

A: Why don't you go mountain climbing with me? You should sometimes do outdoor activities.

B: I don't mind going with you.

A: Good! Remember to wear climbing boots. I'm looking forward to spending time in the mountains together.

<the day>

B: Hi! Thank you for picking me up.

A: My pleasure! It's hot. We can't walk without putting on our hats.

<in the mountain>

B: Let's stop to take pictures. It's beautiful here.

A: OK. You know, I'm good at taking pictures.

B: Oh! I'll never forget seeing such a wonderful view here.

<returning>

B: I'm tired of walking. I want to rest here.

A: Stop complaining. It will begin to rain soon.

B: OK, OK. Would you mind carrying my back pack?

A: No, not at all. Don't give up walking, will you?